

Eleni Zilakaki

Eleni was born in Athens and she has a son. She holds an Economics degree from Athens University of Economics (A.S.O.E.E.) specializing in Business Administration.

She is member of the Athens Chamber of Commerce, member of Certificate of Charter Accountant & Tax Consultant Class A, certified Internal Auditor, member of the Hellenic Institute of Internal Auditors, and member of the IIA Institute of Internal Auditors. From 1998 to 2003 she was an independent auditor according to Greek law 2190 in various companies of the private sector.

She started her career as an accountant in 1986 at Citroen S.A and continued with the pharmaceutical company Alcon Laboratories Hellas S.A (subsidiary of Novartis). During 1990-2000 she worked as Accountant and Insurance Manager for the multinational holding group " Inchcape Holding Hellas S.A". (Toyota Hellas).

In 2000, after succeeding in a public competition proclaimed by A.S.E.P, she joined DEPA and was engaged in the Internal Audit Department and the Budgeting - Financial Control Department. During the last 10 years she is Company's Director of Funding and Investment Management. She has participated in many seminars and congresses both in Greece and abroad. She speaks French and English.

She has been the representative of employees in the DEPA Board of Directors as from 2011 to 2016 and from April 2019 until today.